Let the Children Come- By Paul Walvoord

It will be loud, chaotic and crazy. There will be messes, mistakes and spills. Others will try our patience and push us to the limits of human exertion. Some will lie, others perhaps steal and hit and yet we are going to invite them to our VBS. And we are going to be grateful for the opportunity to welcome them. The Children that God sends to us so that we might fill them with the living word of Christ. And we will do it joyfully and with arms completely open.

Jesus himself said in Luke 18:16, "But Jesus called the children to him and said, 'Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.'" For the next 4 nights, we have been given an opportunity to teach the little ones about our God. We have an opportunity to impart to them spiritual wisdom and learning that can stay with them for a lifetime.

Therefore, brothers and sisters with all diligence, wisdom, patience and love let us welcome the little children for to these the Kingdom belongs!
