Are you to busy?
By– Paul Walvoord

Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!
-Psalm 46:10 NKJV

A Sunday comic strip depicted a famous painting where God is reaching out to man and trying to get man to come towards him, but in this particular comic, the man is telling God to hold on and let him finish his cell phone conversation. This funny vividly illustrates the culture that we live in, and unfortunately, it mirrors the way that each of us lives our own lives. How often do we have the chance to reach out to our Father and have Him lead us through the trials of this life, and yet we often ignore His helping hand. Instead of reaching our hands toward the Creator, we ignore Him and are wrapped up in the pleasures, and responsibilities.

I know that today's culture is filled with high tech gadgets, and that all of our lives are just brimming full with things that need to get done, and this is precisely what Satan wants us to do. Satan wants us to become entangled in the 'good' things of this world, but as Christians, we should be taking time daily in order to reach out towards our Lord. Let us remember to take time out of each day we have on earth to "Be still, and know that I am God."
