A Cloud of Witnesses– Paul Walvoord

Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.
-Hebrews 12:1 NIV

We all have heroes that God places into our lives, and we remember and are thankful for these people as they have encouraged, taught and lead us to become better people and more importantly, to become better Christians. Our lives need to be lived with the knowledge of those that have lived before us, we need to draw upon the experiences and wisdom of those in our congregation that have lived through the trails and temptations of this world, because if we can glean from them just a small piece of advice and put it into practice in our lives; we can avoid some of the pain that this life tries to inflict upon us.

Christians need to remember that those that have gone before us surround us like a great cloud and they want us to overcome the tribulations and schemes of Satan. Therefore, we need to live our lives in such a way as to be rid of our sins, and run with perseverance the race that our savior Jesus Christ has set before us, and we can more easily run the race if we remember the lives of those that have already finished its course.
